

08 3 - Establishment of United Nations - The 09 establishment of UN in 1945 also contributed to the study of international relations to great extent.

10 4 - Emergence of USA as a Superpower in new 11 world order - The end of USSR in 1990 as a superpower changed the whole world and 12 USA emerged as a superpower alone. All these incidents extended the scope of international 13 relations.

14 5 - Technological Development - Technology exercises 15 profound influence on the power base of a state as well as the course of international 16 relations. Due to technological development the world has become a global village. This extended the value ~~of~~ and scope of international relations.

17 6 - Globalization - The world is now a single village 18 and states are incomplete without one another. This 19 situation increase the scope of international relations.
