Principles of UN

Art. 2 of the Chapter I of the Charter of the UN refers to the following principles according to which the UN and its members are required to act:

(1) The organization is based on the principle of the sovereign equality of all its members.
(2) The members will fulfil in good faith the obligations in accordance with the Charter.
(3) The UN shall ensure that the states which are not the members of the UN will act in accordance with the principle of the UNO.
(4) All the members of the UNO will settle their disputes peacefully.
(5) The members shall refrain in their international relations from the threat or use of force against territorial integrity.
(6) All the members shall give the UNO every assistance in any action it takes in accordance with the Charter.
(7) The UNO will not interfere in the domestic matters of the states.
