

Nature of Public Administration Part-II

2- Managerial View -

According to this view, the works of only those persons who are engaged in the performance of managerial functions in an organisation constitute administration. In this managerial view the administration has the functions of planning, programming and organise all the activities in an organisation so as to achieve the desired ends.

Luther Gullick and Herbert Simon subscribe this view.

Gullick says, 'Administration has to do with getting things done; with the accomplishment of defined objectives.'
