India's Foreign Policy's Principles (Part-3)

(4) Peaceful Settlements of International Disputes

One of the basic elements of India's foreign policy is its constant belief in the political solution and peaceful settlement of international disputes. This principle has been included in the Constitution of India under the Directive Principles of State Policy as well as in the Charter of the UN.

(5) Support to UN, International Law and a just and equal world order

India has deep respect for the International Law and the principles of sovereign equality of nations and non-interference in the internal affairs of other nations as explained by the UN. India has played a key role in stablizing world peace by helping in the decolonization process and through active participation in UN Peacekeeping activities.
