About the organizing Institutions:

P.G.DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH has been tirelessly working to improve the department's academic atmosphere and the students' overall growth. In addition to participating in academic pursuits, students receive professional development. Intermittent extracurricular activities have been planned. The department maintains its own literary, debate, and drama clubs for students.

MAHARAJA COLLEGE, Ara The first and oldest coeducational institution in south-west Bihar, Maharaja Bahadur Ram Ran Vijay Prasad Singh College (M.B.R.R.V.Pd.SINGH COLLEGE), also known as Maharaja College, Ara, was founded on September 13, 1954, to address the increasing demand for education, particularly higher education facilities in the Shahabad district after independence. On February 1, 1976, the college became a part of Magadh University in Bodh Gaya, Bihar. Following Magadh University's October 1992 split, Veer Kunwar Singh University was established, with its main office located in Ara. The UGC regulation's 2(f) and 12(b) both acknowledge the college or university. The Maharaja College is obviously more older than Veer Kunwar Singh University Ara today. The university is located in the center of town. -- <https://maharajacollege.ac.in/>

Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, JAIN (Deemed-to-be-University) Bengaluru, India. offers an entrée into the ever-evolving world of global media and a dream university experience that merges the best of both worlds-academics and media. We offer UG and PG Programs. Here, students learn to understand, interpret and resolve issues that drive and change the media world. In syllabi and in real-time training, students address local and global challenges in media and business and are empowered to become next generation leaders in media. They also leverage our potential in networking professional relationships with industry and enjoy the benefits of our international footprint across nations and media related problems. It helps to create media professionals with contemporary skills, no matter what dreams they choose to pursue.
